PRESIDENT'S PEN:

Here we are, looking at another Spring Convention. The schedule this year filled up pretty fast so I'm hoping this is a good sign that folks are excited. We are also planning our 25th anniversary celebration coming up on May 30th. It's going to be a busy year for us. I also want to welcome aboard our new members of the BAGMA team. David Currey is our new Vice President. Our new Board member is Chuck Isaac. We are proud to have these folks and most important to me is the fact that they are excited about serving. Folks, all God asks is that we are ready and willing to serve. Even when you're not sure where it will take you, remember God never puts you where you don't belong. The addition of these new people means that we had to lose the folks who previously held those offices. I want to thank Joe and JoAnn Kotal, and Rich Arnhart. They are a treasure to us and we thank them for serving and giving of themselves so willingly. As always, please remember to pray for them that God would meet their needs and give them good health.

I've had the privilege to serve with a lot of fine folks in this association and it has enriched my life as a result. The Bible says in 1 John 4:7 "Dear friends, let us love one another for love comes from God. Everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God." As Christians, we should have a clear understanding of what love is. Not love as seen by the eyes of the world, but a love that is real and compassionate. It seems to be rare any more, even in our churches today. I read recently where a woman in Georgia who had been married to her husband for 60 years was asked for her best relationship advice. She said, "Don't be afraid to be the one who loves the most. Don't keep track. Don't compare. Just love the most." Well said! Be real and I'll see you soon.

Keep looking up,
Bro. Ray

SOUTHERN GOSPEL

Lou Wills Hildreth

We join you in thanking God for warmer weather, especially for many of our Southern Gospel traveling ministries who have had major problems with ice and snow across the nation. Just about the only travel concern in this area is the heavy traffic in places. Howard no longer drives at night, and we miss seeing our BAGMA friends at the showcases and personal appearances. We are planning on being at the Spring Convention. We were so thankful to have our son-in-law take us to the Gaither Vocal Band concert here in Houston a few weeks ago. We arrived early, at the invitation of Bill Gaither, and enjoyed an unforgettable visit with him. His assistant, our longtime friend Deana Warren, was more than helpful, knowing that we are somewhat more fragile these days. Hanging out in the comfort of the hospitality room allowed us precious time of fellowship with Bill and the Gaither entourage-- David Phelps, Wes Hampton, Adam Crabb, Kevin Williams, Gene McDonald, Matthew Holt, Greg & Charlotte Ritchie. We met Todd Suttles, new member of the GVB, and found him to be gracious and lots of fun. He is genuinely excited to be singing Southern Gospel music. Howard and I have a deep appreciation for Bill Gaither, and we were extremely blessed to be at this memorable concert!!

We were also privileged to attend David and Dana Hancock's concert series "Singin' In Texas" at Sagemont Church in Houston. The huge crowd responded to the fantastic talent lineup with great enthusiasm. A couple from West University Baptist Church where Howard and I are members, Paul and Willene Gutenberger, drove us to this event. They are regular attendees to gospel music events, and the four of us enjoyed the concert from the front row, thanks to Dana Hancock's hospitality. When Frank Seamans, formerly of Legacy Five, led us in the opening song, I knew we were at the right place. Frank and his wife, Libby, pastor Freedom Fellowship in Pearland, and he sings as fabulous as always. A sweet surprise was a piano solo by a longtime friend from Dallas, maestro of the keyboards T. Bob Davis. At the concert, we made some great new friends who share our love for gospel music. I had heard good reports about "The Old Paths" but had not heard them in person, and their performance was great, with strong testimonies. This Southern Gospel male quartet gained many fans on their tour thru Texas, and we welcome them back soon. The Hoppers are loved everywhere, and certainly added their sweet spirit to the concert. Connie was not able to make the trip, but Claude entertained the crowd with his classic humor. A spirit of agreement swept the audience at Sagemont as David Hancock introduced "The Erwins" with his comments urging everyone to support all upcoming young gospel artists. Without a doubt, the Erwins, three young brothers and their teenage sister, sang their way into the hearts of the people. We pray God's continued blessing on this talented young family on their journey to national recognition. At the end of the concert, we were thrilled to visit with many of our BAGMA friends, Nelda and JC Johnson, and several others. Howard and I love all of you and think of you as family. We close with a dedication to the memory of Mosie Lister who died February 12, 2015, at age 93. Mosie wrote "How Long Has It Been" – "Where No One Stands Alone" – "Til The Storm Passes By" and many other beloved gospel songs. Lou Wills Hildreth

HIGHLIGHTED MEMBERS

SOLOIST David Gilmore

David Gilmore is another longtime member of BAGMA. When he's not working, he likes to spend time in his music room at home playing his guitar and doing a little recording. He is known for his soft, mellow voice singing songs such as "Wing of a Dove" and other Christian Country songs. He's also done some song writing and composing as well co-writing songs such as "Little Red Church". He presently lives in Baytown with his wife Linda.

GROUP Diane and Danny Estes

My name is Diane Estes and my husband's name is Danny. We were married in 1969. We have 3 children and 3 grandchildren. We attend Garden Rd. Baptist Church in Pearland, Texas. My husband serves as a deacon at this church where we have been going to for at least 33 years.

We both sing in our church choir, and I personally have been singing ever since I was very young in school and church choirs. I truly believe that God has called us to sing the gospel. My husband has recently joined me in singing. We love singing the message in the song. I was very thankful to God for this answered prayer. We love when we are called to sing either at another church or a nursing home or a funeral for one who has gone to be with the Lord.

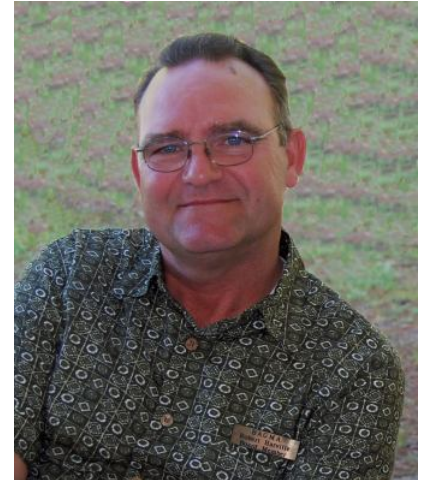

So please keep us in mind, we would love to come to your church to sing God's praises. We love to be around other people who love the Lord as we do. I guess you could say we are baby BAGMA members since we have only been members for 2 years. We have met the sweetest group of people ever. We enjoy singing in the showcase and love to hear others sing as well.

We are so excited about Jesus and full of joy and happiness for our Lord and Savior. Hope to meet you soon.

Love in Christ,
Diane and Danny Estes

SPONSOR(S) Robert Harville

Robert Harville has been a member of BAGMA for many years. He joined as a soloist and eventually became one of our BAGMA Board members. He also sang with a group known as TOT (That Other Trio), which included Jim McDaniel and Ray Walker. He has a passion for singing but his true passion is his family. He is blessed with his wife Brenda, their children, and grandchildren. He has always been known for a smile on his face and a song in his heart.

Dear BAGMA Members:

In June of this year, we will celebrate the 25th Anniversary of Bay Area Gospel Music Association. We have planned a wonderful banquet for all of our members and friends. We wanted to get these plans to you and all those who might want to attend. The 25th Anniversary Banquet will be held on Saturday, May 30, 2015 at Del Sol Banquet Hall at 8118 Park Place, Houston, TX 77017. It is located across the I-45 freeway from the Kelley's Restaurant on Park Place. The time will be 5:00 p.m. till 8:00 p.m. There is plenty of parking in the rear (where the entrance is located) and we will have security as well. The food comes highly recommended. The tickets will be $10.00 per person. The menu is authentic Mexican food including beef and chicken fajitas, rice, refried or charro beans, lettuce, tomato, guacamole, pico de gallo, grilled onions, green and red salsa, jalapeno peppers, chips & sauce, corn & flour tortillas, and iced tea or water.

We would like everyone to help us celebrate this wonderful event so bring your friends and family members. Del Sol management will need a confirmed count of guests prior to the event in order to prepare a sufficient amount of food. Therefore, we are required to pay in advance, so please complete the order form below and let us know how many tickets you want. You can send the order form and a check or money order for the correct amount (no cash should be sent through the mail) to Bay Area Gospel Music Association: P.O. Box 262428, Houston, TX 77207-2428.
