PRESIDENT'S PEN:

I've been doing a lot of thinking these days about years gone by and the folks we haven't seen for some time. Many have gone on to be with the Lord, and many have gone other directions in life.

We found some old pictures in one of the BAGMA boxes the other day so I took the time to go through them. Many of them made me smile, some made me a little sad. You began to realize how many faces have come and gone and it made me think about the last time I'd talked to them.

We've got a lot of folks on our prayer list. That means someone cared enough to make that prayer request. One thing I know to be true in life is that everyone, no matter who you are, needs to know that someone out there cares.

I began to realize that maybe I'm not doing enough to show people that I care. Has life gotten so busy that I've put that part on hold? I think so, at least for me it's that way. I almost forgot to call my own mother on her birthday recently. What does that say about me?

I want to share the lyrics of an old song written by Rose Maddox that I think expresses what I'm trying to say:

Someone To Care

Someone to care, someone to share, all your troubles like no other can do. He'll come down from the skies and brush the tears from your eyes. You're his child and he cares for you

When the world seems cold and your friends seem few, there is someone who cares for you. When you've tears in your eyes, your heart bleeds inside, there is someone who cares for you

When your disappointments come, and you feel so blue, there is someone who cares for you. When you need a friend a friend till the end, there is someone who's a friend to you

Someone to care...

Why wait? Make a call, send a card, or anything to let someone know you care. Don't let life slip away having missed the opportunity to bless and be blessed. Take every opportunity to show the love of Jesus.

Keep looking up,
Bro. Ray

Attention: Be sure to come out to the next General Meeting as we will have a Singing Seminar presented by Floyd Scott. There will be a lot of good information covered so don't miss out.

So, if you want to be included in this section of the Trumpet get your bio information in ASAP by e-mail or U.S. mail. If you are not sure if you sent a bio, please send one. SOUTHERN GOSPEL

Lou Wills Hildreth

Howard and I talk about Heaven often these days. We know that at this present time, we are truly blessed to be able to take care of each other, and we thank God daily for this privilege. I am smiling as I write this article, and I appreciate the opportunity to greet you via the BAGMA Trumpet. We loved seeing many of you recently at "Singin' In Texas"--Sugar Land Baptist Church. This is a fabulous concert series promoted by David Hancock, a member of BAGMA.

David and his wife Dana are dedicated promoters of gospel music and always so gracious to Howard and me. We sat on the front row and were thrilled to see and hear our longtime colleagues Greater Vision and the Booth Brothers, plus hearing an exciting young artist Jake Cowley and guitar maestro Doyle Dikes. Greater Vision members Gerald Wolfe, Rodney Griffin, and Chris Allman are veterans of the stage and never fail to please an audience. The Booth Brothers, masters of vocal blending and song selection, now have Paul Lancaster as their third member replacing Jim Brady who has formed his own trio. I have known Paul for years and knew he would be great with Ron and Michael Booth. Their performance at the concert confirmed that he is just right for them! The entire concert was absolutely stunning, and we appreciate David and Dana Hancock, and their sponsors, for the passion for gospel music and look forward to another one October 24th. In closing, may I share?

A very emotional time for Howard and me that occurred at the recent concert. The Booth Brothers dedicated a special song to us, singing with no tracks, only Ronnie and Doyle Dikes playing their guitars. It was pure delight hearing their voices blending softly on the poignant lyrics of "Look For Me At Jesus Feet." This is a song Howard and I have adopted as our theme song in this season of our lives, written by Squire Parsons in 1974. "If I leave this world of sorrow sometime before you do, just look for me in Heaven and we'll talk the ages thru. But if at first you fail to see me, let me tell you where I'll be. I'll be thanking Christ my Savior for saving a sinner like me" --- "Look For Me At Jesus Feet." Dear BAGMA friends, Bless you as you "shine the light" for our soon-coming King!!!

HIGHLIGHTED MEMBERS

SOLOIST Sally Currey

Once upon a time, Sally was born in West Monroe, LA, the 4th of 5 children. She was born with a song in her heart, and mud between her toes. She sang in school, church, college and Sweet Adeline's. After marrying the Joy of her heart, David Currey, 1959, they lived in Louisiana, Oklahoma and Madrid, Spain. They had three children; Cheryl, Deborah and David Randal. Now, after 55 years, they have seven grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and three in the oven. Joining BAGMA in 2005, she fit right in with her new-found Christian friends and music lovers. She let it be known that she had been a bookkeeper before retiring and was quickly put to work as Treasurer and she hasn't stopped running since.

GROUP

Footprints

Footprints Ministries started in 1990 with Ray and Donna as two of the original members. The calling we felt has led us to many different venues and given us the opportunity to share what God has given us as He opened the doors. The faces of Footprints consist of Ray Donna Walker along with Christine Bailey. Ray is an ordained minister as well as President of the Bay Area Gospel Music Association. The name "Footprints" comes from Luke 9:57-62 where the Lord tells us to follow Me and go preach the kingdom of God. Our hope from the beginning has been to be used of God for His purpose and that the footprints we leave would make a difference. That hope remains today as we consider it a privilege to serve our Lord.
