PRESIDENT'S PEN:

The Convention this year was attended better than last year, although attendance was still low compared to years past. But I have to say, it was a good one. God honored us with some great weather and the chance to fellowship with folks we haven't seen in a while. This year the "Happy Timers" from First Baptist Church North Channel did the concessions and I think they did an outstanding job with the menu and service. Well done folks!

We were able to print the convention booklet this year in color and I for one am very proud of the way it turned out. Thanks to the combined efforts and talents of Jennifer Kahler, Tootsie Dann, Donna Walker, and Melanie Jimmerson, the booklet came together.

Our sound crew, Charlie Ruscher, Mark Kahler, and Chuck Issac, stayed on top of things as usual. That's a hard job trying to keep up with the needs of all the folks on stage.

We had Rhonda Gillespie and Sally Currey helping Pat Hutchings back at the BAGMA tables too. You ladies ROCK!!

Everyone did a super job sticking to the red light system and helping us to stay on schedule. We deeply appreciate all of you who were sitting on the side ready for your set as you were introduced. That helps us to keep things moving without the "dead air". Now if we could just get that guy doing the introductions and announcements to cooperate. lol.

We're still having some issues with folks not signing in 1 hour before your scheduled time. When this happens, it causes us to have to move the schedule around and quite frankly, that just shouldn't need to happen. After all, aren't we Christian adults? Shouldn't we have a clear understanding of what it means to commit to something and how it affects others? I would like to say as well that if that offends anyone, then maybe you needed to read this. We're better than this folks!

We gained some new members and had a few folks from the nearby park come by as well. I believe it was a very good Spring Convention and I thank all you who came out and helped and supported.

People are curious about God and that venue has been an open invite to all who will listen. Sometimes we may even get the chance to talk with them. Let's make sure we're ready, when ask, to give the reason for the Hope that is within us (1 Pet 3:15) not with "churchy" answers, but with answers that an unbeliever can understand. That my friend is witnessing.

Keep looking up,
Bro. Ray

MEMBER UPDATES

Thank you to everyone for your prayers for David. We both felt the prayers being answered along the way. God blessed him with extra time to get ready and he felt pretty good a lot of that time. He knew you were praying and that you all loved him. He really loved all of you and sure did love the concerts you sang in. He smiled when we spoke your names and we prayed for you. God is so GOOD! We'll all see him again soon and we can sing together again. God bless you ALL. Sally Currey.
