PRESIDENT'S PEN:

Another Spring Convention has come and gone. Again I must say that many of us that were there were blessed. Again the numbers were down as seems to be the trend everywhere any more.

Despite attendance, the folks who provided the food concession have already asked to cover the 2019 convention. What a blessing!

The unfortunate thing is that we had many cancellations on the line-up this year. Some were due to health reasons which I pray that all are doing better now. We also had folks both on and off the stage that assumed we would cancel the event because of the weather. We did experience some rain showers off and on for a little while. And the wind, well it got cool and breezy. Personally, I liked it.

I was asked why we didn't cancel the convention and everything I've ever written in this article came to mind. "What has happened to commitment?" is the only thing I could think of. I responded by saying, "When I look in my Bible, I see where the disciples woke Jesus from His sleep in the boat. The storm was raging around them yet the Lord didn't cancel the trip. He knew before He set foot in the boat that a storm was coming but He got in anyway."

Isn't that exactly the way we treat the Lord today? Are we trying to avoid things in our lives because we might be uncomfortable? Then we gather together on Sunday morning and proudly sing songs like "Trust and obey, for there's no other way, to be happy in Jesus, but to trust and obey".

I heard a song recently that really spells out how, in my opinion, we should be treating the Lord with our life and our commitments. This is just a couple verses and the chorus:

"No other King commands our full attention

No other name's above all other names

No other throne rules over every nation

No other God deserves our highest praise

No other death could buy our sweet redemption

No other blood could wash away our shame

No other cross could lead to resurrection

No other God deserves our highest praise

So I raise my hands until my strength has faded

*Stand in honor 'til my knees give way
I will lift my voice and shout a grateful song*

I will sing, O I will sing until my voice is gone"

I think that sums it up. If this offends anyone in any way, I'll be glad to talk about all the hard work and passion it takes to keep BAGMA going. And the faithful ones that do it all.

Keep looking up.
Ray Walker
