PRESIDENT'S PEN:

We have about eleven weeks left in the year as I'm writing this and 2016 just seems to be a blur at this point. So many things going on in our lives and not nearly enough time to cover it all. As I look over my shoulder, I have to ask myself one thing. Did I make a difference? Did I do things that gave God the glory? Or am I just doing busy work?

That's a fear I have when it comes to ministry. I completely understand that staying busy doesn't always mean you're honoring God. I also know that when He commanded us to "Go" in His word that He meant where He sends, not where we choose. The choice we have in this matter is whether we will listen or determine to do our own thing.

Those that know me also know that I like to joke around and have a good time. But I also deeply believe in the sacrifice involved in doing the Lord's work. It's all about Jesus Christ and what He did for us. It's not about anything we've done or how many souls walked the isle under our ministry. That my friends, is the work of the Holy Spirit, not our credit. All God wants is a willing vessel and He will do the rest.

I challenge all of us to examine ourselves and ask the Lord to use us according to His perfect will. At the end of the day, it's always worth it. He sees to that.

Merry Christmas and the very best and blessed New Year ever to all of you.

Keep looking up,
Bro. Ray

It's really hard to believe that we are in the last stretch of 2016. On December 13th, we will be having our BAGMA Christmas banquet in lieu of the monthly General Meeting. I really want to encourage all of you to come out to enjoy a meal and fellowship with one another. Of course we won't have a Showcase in December. Speaking of Showcases, this issue of the Trumpet list the last Showcase of the year. We would like for this one to be in honor of Wilma Morrison as this was where she served as the pianist.

I want to take this time and say thanks to all who gave of your time and talents in the 2016 Showcases. Thanks to all of you who came out and supported the singers and musicians too. We can't do them without you folks.

Let's not forget all the churches that have willingly opened their doors and welcomed us in. We appreciate you so much. BAGMA has been so blessed! Looking for bigger blessings in 2017.

Before I go I would like to tug on your hearts. Our last monthly meeting was really down in numbers. As I looked around the room I saw that many of the faithful ones were missing. Mr. Morrison, David and Sally, Joe and Joann, Dorothy Allen (Pat's mom), Mr. and Mrs. Goldman, along with others. They are not there because of things beyond their control and I miss their smiling faces. They support BAGMA because they believe in what we do. Folks, we need to pick up that torch and run that race toward the higher calling God has put in our hearts. Let's encourage each other.

Till next time,
Donna

MEMBER UPDATES

Please send your information about yourself or the person you are honoring, and pictures (one while in the field of service and one most recent if you have them). We are honoring past and present military, first responders, fire fighters, police - any one who serves our country in any capacity.

Please allow me to thank each of you for your prayers, calls, cards and kindness extended to me following my cancer surgery. It was a journey that I didn't anticipate taking but nothing surprises God so I knew He would carry me through it. I have always believed and taught folks that you can't have a testimony without a test. My, my... how those words rang in my ear these last few months. God is faithful. God is awesome. Our God reigns. I am doing well and back to work. Floyd was constantly by my side and I thank the Lord for him...I am truly blessed to be his wife! I am also blessed to be part of the BAGMA family! Be blessed... Be a blessing...
Christine Scott
