PRESIDENT'S PEN:

I'm writing this after the loss of yet another precious child of the King. I'm referring this time to Bro David Dillingham whose attitude always made me smile. Because I can't really put into words what his attitude was like, I would rather let the following story about a man named John do it for me. He will be missed very much.

John is the kind of guy who is always in a good mood and always has something positive to say. When someone would ask him how he was doing, he would reply, "If I were any better, I would be twins!" He was a natural motivator. If an employee was having a bad day, John would encourage them to look on the positive side of the situation.

Seeing this really made me curious, so one day I asked him, "I don't get it! You can't be a positive person all of the time. How do you do it?" He replied, "Each morning I wake up and say to myself, you have two choices today. You can choose to be in a good mood or ...choose to be in a bad mood. I choose to be in a good mood."

"Each time something bad happens, I can choose to be a victim or...I can choose to learn from it. I choose to learn. Every time someone comes to me complaining, I can choose to accept their complaining or... I can point out the positive side of life. I choose the positive side of life".

"Yeah, right, it's not that easy," I protested.

"Yes, it is," he said. "Life is all about choices. When you cut away all the junk, every situation is a choice. You choose how you react to situations or how people affect your mood. You choose your mood. The bottom line: It's your choice how you live your life."

I reflected on what he said. Soon hereafter, I left the Tower Industry to start my own business. We lost touch, but I often thought about him when I made a choice about life instead of reacting to it.

Several years later, I heard that he was involved in a serious accident, falling some 60 feet from a communications tower. After 18 hours of surgery and weeks of intensive care, he was released from the hospital with rods placed in his back.

I saw him about six months after the accident. When I asked him how he was, he replied, "If I were any better, I'd be twins...Wanna see my scars?" I declined, but I did ask him what had gone through his mind as the accident took place.

"The first thing was the well-being of my soon-to-be born daughter," he replied. "Then, as I lay on the ground, I remembered that I had two choices: I could choose to live or...I could choose to die. I chose to live."

"Weren't you scared? Did you lose consciousness?" I asked

He continued, "The paramedics were great. They kept telling me I was going to be fine. But when they wheeled me into the ER and I saw the expressions on the faces of the doctors and nurses, I got really scared. In their eyes, I read 'he's a dead man'. I knew I needed to take action."

"What did you do?" I asked.

"Well, there was a nurse shouting questions at me," said John. "She asked if I was allergic to anything 'Yes, I replied.' The doctors and nurses stopped working as they waited for my reply. I took a deep breath and yelled, 'Gravity'."

Over their laughter, I told them, "I am choosing to live. Operate on me as if I am alive, not dead." He lived, thanks to the skill of his doctors, but also because of his amazing attitude... I learned from him that every day we have the choice to live fully.

Attitude, after all, is everything. David knew this and he too made a difference.

Keep looking up.
Ray Walker

AMERICAN HEROES

Ed Kinsey

I joined the Police Department in Sparta, Illinois in 1978 where I was the department juvenile officer. I focused on child abuse cases as well as cases where juveniles were the offenders. On May 26, 1989 at 3:00 am I stopped a vehicle and found myself fighting a “crazy man” over my gun. My gun fired during the struggle striking my leg with a .357 magnum hollow point. The bullet pulverized my left knee and shattered the bones above and below the knee.

After the offender fled the scene, I was able to call dispatch and an ambulance was sent to the scene. While I was lying in the road, I could feel the blood pouring out and was certain I would die. I wasn't a Christian but I'd heard about Heaven and hell as a child in Sunday school. That's when it hit me that I was going to hell! That terrified me and I began to pray like I'd never done before. I promised God that if I survived, I would live for Him.

I had six surgeries with bone grafts where my knee used to be. A metal rod and plates from my hip to my ankle. After 1½ years out of work I went back to the department as the evidence officer for another 11 years. All together, I served 23 years with the department.

Most important, I now serve the Lord. I've written 86 songs and try to make everyday a chance to witness and live for the Lord.
